THIS OFFER SUPERSEDES AND REPLACES ANY PRIOR VERSIONS

Personal and Confidential

Dear Pierre:

Congratulations on your new role with Google Canada Corporation ("Google"). As part of your new role, we are pleased to offer employment to you on the terms described below.

The Position

Your position will be that of Software Developer III - Canada. You will be located in our Montreal office. Google reserves the right to change the duties and responsibilities of this position or to reassign you to another position or location at its discretion.

You will devote your full working time and attention and exert your best efforts, knowledge, skill and energy to the performance of your duties with Google. You will not, without the prior written consent of Google, assume any other employment or engage in any other business, occupation or activity during working hours or that would otherwise be incompatible with your duties and obligations as a Google employee.

Effective Date

Your employment will commence on 12 May 2022. Please note that your original start date of 1 April 2019, with Google Switzerland GmbH will apply for purposes of benefits-related length of service requirements (e.g., vacation).

Base Salary

Your base salary will be CAD $131,000.00 annually, less statutory deductions as required by law, payable twice each month through direct deposit to the financial institution of your choice, subject to periodic review.

Relocation

To assist you with some of the costs associated with your move, Google will provide you with reimbursement for specified moving expenses. In order to receive the Relocation Benefits, you will be required to work with a third party vendor provider designated by Google to assist in employee moves. The Relocation Benefits will be contingent on your move. We encourage you to consult a tax professional for information regarding all current tax reporting requirements related to this benefit. Should you terminate your position at Google within the first twelve months of your employment, you will be required to repay all relocation expenses paid by Google on a pro-rated basis.

Company Bonus Plan

You are also eligible to participate in the company discretionary bonus plan; your annual bonus target will be 15.0% of your base salary. Please note that any bonus payout is fully discretionary and is conditional on both company and individual performance and you being actively employed by Google up to and on December 31 of the applicable annual performance period. For greater certainty, if your employment is terminated, with or without cause, before December 31 of the applicable annual performance period, you hereby waive any claim to that bonus or any portion thereof. In the event that your employment is terminated without cause, and a bonus would ordinarily be paid after the expiration of the statutory notice period, you hereby waive any claim to that bonus or any portion thereof. The company reserves the right in its absolute discretion to vary the plan. You will be notified of any such changes in writing.

Vacation Entitlement

Your annual vacation entitlement will be 15 days per calendar year, pro-rated during your first calendar year of employment. After three years of employment, you are eligible to accrue 20 days per calendar year. Vacation shall be taken at times agreed upon by you and Google. For the purpose of calculating your vacation entitlement, the reference year will be the calendar year (January 1 to December 31). You will be permitted to accrue and take your vacation during the reference year.

Benefits

Google provides a comprehensive benefits plan for employees (please refer to your offer contract email for a link to the current benefits). This plan covers extended health, dental, life, and disability insurance. Other benefits are being reviewed and will be communicated once determined. This coverage commences on your first day of employment. Google may, from time to time in its sole discretion, modify or eliminate its policies and the benefits offered to employees. In the event that this letter conflicts with the terms of the governing benefit plan materials, the governing materials will prevail.

Termination

You agree to provide one month notice of a resignation. If Google terminates your employment, other than for cause, Google will provide you with one month notice plus an additional one week of notice for each completed year of service to a maximum notice period of 26 weeks. Google may, in its discretion, substitute any notice period or portion thereof, with payment of base salary in lieu of notice, except as required by applicable employment standards legislation. If the applicable employment standards legislation requires severance pay in the circumstances, it will also be paid. If you are terminated for cause, you will not receive any notice or pay in lieu of severance pay, except as required by applicable employment standards legislation. Cause for this purpose includes, but is not limited to, such things as unsatisfactory performance, dishonesty, insubordination, "serious reason" and serious misconduct, all as determined in the sole discretion of Google.

Google will continue your insured employee health benefits coverage during any notice period, except for disability insurance which will be continued only as may be required under applicable employment standards legislation. This termination provision will continue in place even should your position, duties, responsibilities and compensation change significantly while you are with Google. At all times, you and Google intend to and will comply with all requirements of applicable employment standards legislation. In the event that greater entitlements are required to be given by Google pursuant to applicable employment standards legislation, this letter shall be construed as providing for the provision of such greater entitlements (and no more).

It is agreed and understood that provision of the entitlements set out in this letter shall constitute full and final satisfaction of any claim which you might have arising from or relating to the termination of your employment, whether such claim arises under statute, contract, civil/common law or otherwise.

Business Protection Agreement

You are being offered employment at Google based on your personal skills and experience, and not due to your knowledge of any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of a prior or current employer. You represent that you are not subject to any contractual obligation that could restrict or otherwise limit your ability to accept this offer or carry out your employment duties with Google.

Should you accept this offer, we do not want you to make use of or disclose any such information or to retain or disclose any materials from a prior or current employer. Likewise, as an employee of Google, it is likely that you will become knowledgeable about confidential, trade secret and/or proprietary information related to the operations, products and services of Google, Alphabet, and their clients. To protect the interests of Google, Alphabet and their clients, all employees are required to read and sign Google's Confidential Information and Invention Assignment Agreement, a copy of which is enclosed. By accepting employment at Google, you agree to comply with all Google policies and procedures, including the Code of Conduct.

("Alphabet"), which prohibits, among other things, employees, contractors and temporary workers from trading Alphabet stock during certain time periods and engaging in any derivative transactions in Alphabet stock. It will be your responsibility to educate yourself regarding Alphabet's insider trading policies and to ensure you are in full compliance. If you have any questions about Alphabet's policy against insider trading, please contact Human Resources.

Vous consacrerez tout votre temps de travail et toute votre attention à vos fonctions chez Google et vous déploierez tous les efforts ainsi que toutes les connaissances, les compétences et l'énergie nécessaires à l'accomplissement de celles-ci. Sans le consentement préalable écrit de Google, vous n'occuperez aucun autre emploi et vous ne vous adonnerez à aucune autre activité ou occupation pendant les heures de travail ni à aucune autre activité ou occupation qui serait par ailleurs incompatible avec vos fonctions et obligations à titre d'employé de Google.

Date de prise d'effet

Votre emploi commencera le 12 May 2022. Veuillez prendre note que votre date de début initiale, soit le 1 April 2019, auprès de Google Switzerland GmbH, sera la date utilisée pour calculer les états de service aux fins des avantages (p. ex., les vacances).

Salaire de base

Votre salaire de base sera de CAD $131,000.00 par année, moins les retenues obligatoires requises par la loi, payable deux fois par mois, par dépôt direct à l'institution financière de votre choix, sous réserve d'une réévaluation périodique

Réinstallation

Pour vous aider à régler une partie des coûts associés à votre déménagement, Google vous remboursera certains frais de déménagement stipulés. Afin de recevoir l'allocation de réinstallation, vous devrez retenir les services d'un fournisseur tiers désigné par Google pour le déménagement. L'allocation de réinstallation vous sera accordée à la condition que vous déménagiez. Nous vous invitons à consulter un fiscaliste afin d'obtenir des renseignements sur toutes les exigences actuelles en matière de déclaration fiscale liées à cette allocation. Si votre emploi auprès de Google prend fin dans les 12 premiers mois de votre embauche, vous devrez rembourser tous les frais de réinstallation payés par Google sur une base proportionnelle.

Prime de l'entreprise

Vous êtes aussi admissible à participer au régime de primes discrétionnaire de l'entreprise; votre prime annuelle cible correspondra à 15.0% de votre salaire de base. Veuillez noter que tous les paiements de bonus sont entièrement discrétionnaires et dépendent de la performance de l'entreprise et des particuliers et de votre emploi actif chez Google jusqu'au 31 décembre de la période de performance annuelle applicable. Pour plus de certitude, si votre emploi prend fin, avec ou sans motif, avant le 31 décembre de la période de rendement annuelle applicable, vous renoncez par la présente à toute réclamation de cette prime ou d'une partie de celle-ci. Dans le cas où votre emploi prend fin sans motif et qu'une prime serait normalement versée après l'expiration du délai de préavis légal, vous renoncez par la présente à toute réclamation de cette prime ou d'une partie de celle-ci. La société se réserve le droit, à son entière discrétion, de modifier le plan. Vous serez informé par écrit de ces modifications.

Droits à un congé annuel

Vous aurez droit à 15 jours de vacances par année civile, calculés au prorata au cours de votre première année civile d'emploi. Après trois ans d'emploi, vous aurez droit à 20 jours de vacances par année civile. Vous prendrez vos vacances aux moments convenus par vous et Google. Aux fins du calcul de vos vacances, l'année de référence sera l'année civile (du 1er janvier au 31 décembre). Vous serez autorisé à accumuler et à prendre vos vacances pendant la année de référence.

Avantages

Google offre un régime d'avantages complet aux employés (veuillez vous référer à l'email de votre contrat d'offre pour un lien vers les avantages actuels). Le régime comprend une assurance complémentaire pour les soins de santé, les soins dentaires et les soins de la vue. D'autres avantages sont en cours d'examen et seront communiqués une fois établis. La couverture commence dès votre premier jour d'emploi. Google peut, à l'occasion et à son gré, modifier ou éliminer ses politiques et les avantages qu'elle offre aux employés. Dans le cas où cette lettre est en conflit avec les termes des matériaux régissant le régime d'avantages sociaux, les matériaux gouvernants prévaudront.

Cessation d'emploi

En cas de démission, vous acceptez de fournir un préavis de un mois. Sauf pour un motif valable, Google vous fournira un préavis raisonnable de licenciement conformément aux exigences du Code civil du Québec. Google peut, à sa discrétion, remplacer toute période de préavis ou partie de celle-ci, par le paiement du salaire de base au lieu d'un préavis, sauf si la législation sur les normes d'emploi applicable l'exige. Si la législation sur les normes d'emploi applicable exige une indemnité de départ dans les circonstances, elle sera également versée. Si vous êtes licencié pour un motif valable, vous ne recevrez ni préavis ni indemnité de remplacement ni indemnité de licenciement, sauf si la législation sur les normes d'emploi applicable l'exige. À cette fin, la cause comprend, sans s'y limiter, des éléments tels que les performances insatisfaisantes, la malhonnêteté, l'insubordination, les «raisons graves» et les fautes graves, tous déterminés à la seule discrétion de Google.

Google maintiendra votre couverture d'assurance maladie des employés pendant toute période de préavis, à l'exception de l'assurance invalidité qui ne sera maintenue que si la législation sur les normes d'emploi applicable l'exige. Cette clause de résiliation restera en vigueur même si votre poste, vos fonctions, vos responsabilités et votre rémunération changent considérablement pendant que vous travaillez avec Google. À tout moment, vous et Google avez l'intention de vous conformer à toutes les exigences de la législation applicable en matière de normes d'emploi et vous vous y conformerez. Dans le cas où des droits plus importants doivent être accordés par Google conformément à la législation applicable en matière de normes d'emploi, la présente lettre doit être interprétée comme prévoyant l'octroi de tels droits (et pas plus).

Il est convenu et entendu que la fourniture des droits énoncés dans la présente lettre constituera la satisfaction totale et finale de toute réclamation que vous pourriez avoir découlant de ou liée à la cessation de votre emploi, que cette réclamation découle de la loi, d'un contrat, d'une procédure civile / common law ou autrement.

Entente relative à la protection des renseignements commerciaux

Nous vous offrons un emploi chez Google en raison de votre expérience et de vos compétences personnelles et non parce que vous avez connaissance de renseignements confidentiels ou exclusifs ou de secrets commerciaux que vous avez obtenus auprès d'un employeur antérieur ou de votre employeur actuel. Les employés de Google sont soumis à la politique stricte contre les délits d'initiés d'Alphabet Inc. ("Alphabet"), qui interdit, entre autres, aux employés, aux sous-traitants et aux travailleurs temporaires de négocier des actions Alphabet pendant certaines périodes et d'effectuer toute transaction dérivée dans Actions Alphabet. Il vous appartient de vous renseigner sur les politiques d'Alphabet en matière de délits d'initiés et de vous assurer de votre entière conformité. Si vous avez des questions sur la politique d'Alphabet contre les délits d'initiés, veuillez contacter les ressources humaines.

GOOGLE CANADA CORPORATION

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND INVENTION ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

As a condition of my employment with Google Canada Corporation, its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns (together "Google"), and in consideration of my receipt of confidential information, my employment with Google, and my receipt of any compensation Google is paying to me, I agree to the following terms of this Confidential Information and Invention Assignment Agreement (this "Agreement"):

1. Confidential Information.

(a) Definition of Google Confidential Information. "Google Confidential Information" means, without limitation, any information in any form that relates to Google or Google's business and that is not generally known. Examples include Google's non-public information that relates to its actual or anticipated business, products or services, research, development, technical data, customers, customer lists, markets, software, hardware, finances, employee data and evaluation, trade secrets or know-how or other proprietary information, intellectual property rights, including but not limited to, Assigned Inventions (as defined below), unpublished or pending patent applications and all related patent rights, and user data (i.e., any information directly or indirectly collected by Google from users of its services). Google Confidential Information also includes any information of third parties (e.g., Google's advertisers, collaborators, subscribers, customers, suppliers, partners, vendors, partners, licensees or licensors) that was provided to Google on a confidential basis. Google Confidential Information does not include any items that have become publicly known through no wrongful act of mine or others under a relevant confidentiality obligation. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to limit employees' rights to discuss the terms, wages, and working conditions of their employment, as protected by applicable law.

(b) Nonuse and Nondisclosure. During and after my employment with Google, I will hold in the strictest confidence and take all reasonable precautions to prevent any unauthorized use or disclosure of Google Confidential Information (whether disclosed to me in anticipation of or during my employment by Google), and I will not (i) use Google Confidential Information for any purpose other than for the benefit of Google in the scope of my employment, or (ii) disclose Google Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written authorization of Google. I agree that all Google Confidential Information that I use or generate in connection with my employment belongs to Google (or third parties identified by Google). I understand that my unauthorized use or disclosure of Google Confidential Information during my employment or after my employment may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination and/or legal action.

(c) Former Employer Information / Definition of Google Property. I will not use or disclose in connection with my employment with Google or bring onto Google's electronic or physical property, facilities, or systems (collectively, "Google Property") any proprietary information, trade secrets, or any non-public material belonging to any previous employer or other person or entity unless consented to in writing by such employer, person, or entity.

2. Inventions.

(a) Definition of Inventions. "Inventions" includes inventions, designs, creations, developments, ideas, concepts, techniques, devices, apparatus, discoveries, formulae, processes, methods, improvements, writings, drawings, records, original works of authorship, trademarks, trade secrets, know-how, proprietary information and any other intellectual property, whether or not patentable or registrable under patent, copyright, design, integrated circuit topography or similar laws.

(b) Assignment of Inventions. Google LLC will own all Inventions that I invent, create, develop, reduce to practice or otherwise acquire or contribute to, solely or jointly with others, as a result of or relating to my employment with Google (including during my off-duty hours) or my use of Google's equipment, supplies, facilities, or Google Confidential Information, and any rights, including intellectual property rights, in the Inventions (the "Assigned Inventions"). I will promptly disclose in writing to Google any Assigned Inventions and assign to Google my rights in any Assigned Inventions. I hereby irrevocably assign to Google LLC, and agree to assign, my rights in all Assigned Inventions, and convey to Google LLC ownership of any Assigned Inventions, including those not yet in existence. Where applicable, all works of authorship made by me (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of and during my employment with Google are "works made for hire" as defined in the United States Copyright Act. The decision whether or not to commercialize or market any Assigned Inventions is within Google's sole discretion and for Google's sole benefit, and that I will not claim any consideration as a result of Google's use or commercialization of any such Inventions or such assignment or conveyance.

(c) Prior Inventions. I list in Exhibit A all Inventions that I solely or jointly made before my employment with Google (collectively, "Prior Inventions") and that I am not assigning to Google. I will not incorporate any Inventions that I solely or jointly made before my employment with Google, including Prior Inventions listed in Exhibit A, into any Assigned Inventions or in any other product or service of Google or otherwise use any such Inventions in the course of my employment with Google without its prior written permission. If I incorporate (or have incorporated) such Inventions into any Assigned Inventions, product, or service of Google, I hereby grant to Google a royalty-free, irrevocable, non-terminable, perpetual, transferable worldwide license (with the right to sublicense) to make, have made, use, import, sell, reproduce, distribute, modify, adapt, prepare derivative works of, display, perform, and otherwise exploit, use and commercialize such Prior Invention.

(d) Maintenance of Records. I agree to keep and maintain for Google detailed and accurate written records in any format that it may specify of all Assigned Inventions that I make (solely or jointly with others) for Google. The records are and remain the sole property of Google.

(e) Securing Intellectual Property Rights. I agree to assist Google (or its designee) at Google's expense to assign, secure, and enforce all rights, including intellectual property rights, in any Assigned Inventions in any and all countries, disclose to Google all pertinent information and data, and sign any document that Google reasonably deems necessary. If Google is unable for any reason to secure my signature to any document required to assign, secure, and enforce any such rights, then I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint Google and its officers and agents as my agents and attorneys in fact to execute any documents on my behalf for this purpose. This power of attorney will be considered coupled with an interest and will be irrevocable. My obligations under this Section 2(e) will continue after the termination of my employment with Google.

3. Conflicting Employment.

(a) Other Employment or Activities. During my employment with Google, I will not engage in any other employment or other activities or services directly related to the business in which Google is now involved, becomes involved, or has plans to become involved or that conflict with my obligations to Google without seeking and receiving permission in advance from Google's Ethics and Compliance team.

(b) Prior Agreements with Other Parties. My performance of all the terms of this Agreement and my duties as an employee of Google will not breach any invention assignment, proprietary information, confidentiality, or similar agreement with any former employer or other party.

4. Return of Google Property and Information.

(a) Return of Google Property. Immediately upon termination of my employment with Google, I agree to deliver to Google and will not keep, recreate, or deliver to any other person or entity any documents and materials pertaining to my work with Google or containing any Google Confidential Information. I agree to deliver promptly all Google Property, as applicable, in my possession or control. I agree, upon Google's request, to sign a document that I have fulfilled my responsibilities under this Agreement.

(b) Return of Google Information. Upon termination of my employment, I will make a prompt and reasonable search for any Google Confidential Information in my possession or control. If I locate such information I will notify Google and provide a computer-useable copy of it. I will cooperate reasonably with Google to verify that the necessary copying is completed, and, when Google confirms compliance, I will delete fully all Google Confidential Information.

(c) Compliance. I have no reasonable expectation of privacy in any Google Property or in any other documents, equipment, or systems used to conduct the business of Google. Google may audit and search any Google Property or such documents, equipment, or systems without further notice to me for any business-related purpose at Google's reasonable discretion. I will provide Google with access to any documents, equipment, or systems used to conduct the business of Google immediately upon request. I consent to Google taking reasonable steps to prevent unauthorized access to Google Property and Google information. I understand that I am not permitted to add any unauthorized applications or any applications that I do not have a license or authorization for use to any Google Property, and that I will refrain from copying any software that I do not have a license or authorization to use or using such software or websites that I do not have a license or authorization to use on Google Property. It is my responsibility to comply with Google's policies governing use of Google Property.

5. Notification. If my employment with Google ends, I consent to Google notifying my new employer or any third party about my obligations under this Agreement.

6. Solicitation of Employees. To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, during my employment with Google and for twelve months immediately following its termination for any reason, whether voluntary or involuntary, with or without cause, I will not directly or indirectly solicit any of Google's employees to leave their employment.

7. Export Statement of Assurance. In the course of my employment, Google may release to me items (including software, technology, systems, equipment, and components) subject to export control laws. I certify that I will not export, re-export, or release these items in violation of any export control laws and I will not disclose/export/re-export these items to any person other than as required in the scope of my employment with Google. If I have any question regarding this Section 7, I immediately will contact the Legal Services Department before taking any actions.

8. Code of Conduct. I have read Google's Code of Conduct, which is available on the "Investor Relations" page of Google's public website. I agree to comply with the terms of the Code of Conduct and report any violations of the Code of Conduct.

9. Employee Handbook. Google's Employee Handbook consists of employment practices, guidelines and policies listed in a table of contents on Google's "Employee Handbook" internal website, and that those policies incorporate by reference supplemental policies. Within ten days of signing this Agreement, I will read the employment practices, guidelines and policies within Google's

Employee Handbook, and will at all times comply with its policies, including supplemental policies, as they may be revised from time to time.

10. Use of Images. During my employment, Google or its agents may obtain images of me for subsequent use in materials. My name may or may not be included along with such images. I grant Google permission for such use of my images, both during and after my employment, and I understand that I will not receive any royalties or other compensation for this use.

11. General Provisions

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the Province in which I am employed and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein. If any lawsuit is permitted under or related to this Agreement or my employment, I consent to the exclusive personal jurisdiction and venue of the provincial and federal courts located in the Province in which I am employed.

(b) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with its Exhibits, and any executed written offer letter between Google and me, are the entire agreement between Google and me relating to the subject matter herein and supersede all prior written and oral agreements, discussions, or representations. No change to this Agreement, other than amendments to Sections 2 and 3 relating to personal open-source projects in a format prepared by Google, will be effective unless in writing signed by Google LLC's Chief Executive Officer. Any change or changes in my duties, salary, compensation, position, or other terms of employment will not affect the validity or scope of this Agreement.

(c) Severability. If one or more of the provisions in this Agreement are deemed void, the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect.

(d) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will be binding upon my heirs, executors, assigns, administrators, and other legal representatives and will be for the benefit of Google, its successors, and its assigns. Google may assign this Agreement to anyone at any time without my consent. There are no intended third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

(e) Waiver. Waiver by Google of a breach of any provision of this Agreement will not waive its right to take action based on any other breach.

(f) Survivorship. The rights and obligations of the parties to this Agreement will survive termination of my employment with Google.

For employees in Quebec : Les parties reconnaissent avoir exigé la rédaction en anglais de cette convention, ainsi que de tous documents exécutés, avis donnés et procédures judiciaires intentées, directement ou indirectement, relativement à ou suite à la présente convention.
